Doing More With Less (and Dealing With the Stress)!

Start the year off with some new tips and techniques for handling the information overload, managing your time, and getting things done with less resources. We will also talk about dealing with the stress created by our high operational tempo.

Our speaker is Eddie Williams, a seasoned speaker, trainer, facilitator, and author. Eddie is a West Point Military Academy graduate, U.S. Army Veteran and former Paratrooper, Ranger, and Green Beret. He has worked with clients such as AFLAC, Boys & Girls Clubs of America, Sherwin Williams, FedEx, MetLife, US Department of Labor, Waste Management, Marriott, IHOP, The Coca-Cola Company, The FAA, and the CDC. (A surprising fact is that our Vernon Thomas and Eddie were classmates at West Point)
